OKLAHOMA TOWN MAROONED BY FLOOD WATER Hundreds Are Homeless In And Near Dallas As Trinity Rises

1000 Panic Stricken In Chicago Fire

1,000 persons, including 250 women, were thrown into a sea of panic shortly before midnight when routed from top floors of the 20 story Capitol building by fire which was estimated today to have done $100,000 damage.

Smoke and fire filled sections of elevator shafts and stairways. Elevator men heroically ran their cages through the burning floors, taking down hysterical women attending an Eastern Star ritual. Many of the women fainted. Several hundred members of the Knights Templar and members of the Chicago Vending Machine association ran down stairways through which water cascaded after being released on the top floors where the fire damaged the structure.

Thousands from surrounding the streets watched the unusual blaze. Two firemen were overcome by smoke.

HARDING WILL SEE RICHES IN ALASKA TIMBER

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Even if he gets no farther than the Alaska of the tourist when he visits Alaska this summer, President Harding will see a wonderland. But if he gets into the country he will find still more wonders and see the undeveloped wealth of an empire, for with its 590,000 square miles the territory is one-third larger than the Atlantic states from Maine to Florida.

Yet ninety per cent of the towns and mining camps can be reached rapidly from any part of the world by telegraph and telephone. The United States Navy operates radio stations at Cordova, Dutch Harbor, Saint George, Saint Paul Island and Sitka. The Signal Corps now operates more than 4,000 miles of wireless, land lines and cable.

Perhaps the President will see the Coast range north of Cross Sound which has twelve peaks that exceed 10,000 feet while Saint Elias reaches 18,024 and Logan 19,540 above the sea. Then there are the glaciers, the last of the ice age. Some of them have faces three miles across and 300 feet high. The greatest ice mass is the Malaspina glacier on the southern side of Saint Elias. This has an area of about 1,200 square miles.

Nome is not any nearer Sitka than Boston is to Tampa. This gives you an idea of the territorial empire the head of the nation will visit. It was 56 years ago in May that the United States paid Russia $7,200,000 for the territory. Uncle Sam occupied the territory in the following October.

Untold Wealth
In the untold wealth of the country gold, copper, fisheries, and many things figure. Perhaps the most important of all natural resources, says Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the American Tree association is the forest wealth. Their importance in connection with the future economic position of the United States can not be over estimated. Neither can their bearing on the newsprint production be over estimated.

There are two great national forests in Alaska. They cover 20,570,740 acres or about 5 1/2 per cent, of the total area of Alaska. The larger of these woodlands, the Tongass National Forest, is estimated to contain 70,000,000,000 board feet of timber ripe for marketing. Stand of 100,000 board feet per acre are not infrequent.

This is the Alaskan forest that will some day be shipping large amounts of timber to the States. It has over 25,000 miles of shore line and ninety per cent of the usable timber is within two miles of tidewater. This makes it easy to log the timber and load the lumber directly from the forest to

Memorial Services of B. P. O. E. To Be Held At First Christian Church Thursday Night Of The Present Week

Charles L. Clover, Secretary of the Elks Club states that the Mexia B. P. O. E. will gather Thursday night at the First Christian Church for the annual memorial services which is observed by all Elk lodges in America. He urges all members to be present and the public generally is invited to attend. The address will be delivered by Rev. G. T. Reaves, pastor of the Christian Church. The program in full will be published Wednesday.

What A Wonderful Place - Is Bonham

BONHAM, Texas, June 12.—A batch of three dozen eggs, laid away in a store room for almost a year have started to hatch, "without a mother to guide them."

The eggs are a part of a shipment received here last summer by a local buyer who laid them aside after candling them because he found them unfit for sale.

Without ever having been touched, and subjected to the changing temperatures of summer, fall, winter and spring, the eggs have started hatching. Four little chicks have already hopped out of their ancient shells and more are expected.

No sitting accommodation for congregations was provided in churches before the Fourteenth century. People sat on straw or rushes laid on the floor.

The Stuart Auto Supply Company will move their business to the McDonald building at the corner of Commerce and McKinney.

the steamers. This forest is 1,500 miles closer to the mainland markets than is the other Alaskan National Forest.

The other big timberland is the Chugach national forest. It is a smaller edition of the Tongass Forest. Its trees are not so large and the stand of timber only about one-half as heavy as in the Tongass. Experts estimate that it contains 7,000,000,000 board feet of lumber. Western hemlock predominates. There is also much spruce, poplar and birch. Stands of 40,000 to 50,000 feet of lumber an acre are not unusual.

The lumber of the Chugach National Forest will play an important part in the industrial life of Alaska. Even now, it is used by the fishing, mining, railroad and agricultural interests.

Source of Print Paper
Alaska will probably develop into one of the principal paper sources of the United States, Pack points out. National forests in Alaska contain approximately 100,000,000 cords of timber suitable for paper manufacture. Experts report that these forests could produce 2,000,000 cords of pulpwood annually for centuries without depletion. About 6,000,000 tons of pulpwood annually are required to keep us supplied with enough paper. The Tongass National Forest could easily supply one-third of this amount indefinitely. This forest also is rich in water power.

If a pulp and paper industry is built up in Alaska, it will be of great benefit to that northern country. It will increase the population by creating a demand for more labor. It will aid the farming operations by making a home market for their products. It will improve transportation and develop all kinds of business.

Discovery of gold in 1898 served to direct the attention of the public anew to Alaska. Much history has been made since Peter the Great drew up a program for exploring Alaska just a few days before his death. It was not until 1741 that Bering got into the country as the representative of the Czar. The czars have gone but Alaska still remains, perhaps the greatest asset Uncle Sam possesses.

THREE KILLED IN THE RUHR AS SABOTAGE GROWS

PARIS, June 12.—Two Germans and a French soldier were killed in the Ruhr today and another German died of wounds.

Four explosions occurred on railway lines and sabotage and unrest appeared to be growing.

A French sentinel was shot and killed as he walked his post at Becklinghausen. Later a German civilian is reported to have been slain by French troops at that city. Another was killed at Dortmund, where one died of wounds received when the French shot 35 persons who were out after curfew.

Flood Worst In History In North Oklahoma

DALLAS, June 12.—Hundreds are homeless in this section as the result of flood waters which swept down the Trinity, making the stream at this point a roaring torrent.

The Trinity rose four feet during the night, reaching the height of 37 4-10 feet, and still rising. It is not expected to go more than a foot higher, however. Normal stage is about 14 feet.

Damage is said to be negligible because sufficient warning was given residents in the flooded areas to move valuables from their homes. Truck crops are washed out. This comprises the chief damage.

PONCA CITY, Okla., June 12.—Ponca City is marooned today, although the Chickasha river is falling only airplanes and boats furnish outlets from here. The combined damage resulting from rampages of the Arkansas, Chickasha and Salt Fork rivers in Kay county alone is estimated at more than two million.

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 12.—With northern Oklahoma prostrate from one of the worst floods in its history, northern and eastern parts of the State were feeling the force of the floods today.

Big Jess Willard, who was marooned at the 101 Ranch, assumed the role of life guard, carrying several women and children to higher ground and aiding in the rescue of livestock.

Half a dozen rivers swept southward through the eastern part of the State heavily freighted with debris from wreckage up-streams.

Farmers, forewarned, fled before the rush of the waters driving their stock before them.

Property loss will mount into millions according to reports from the inundated areas. Property loss alone to the Miller Brothers' 101 Ranch, will amount to more than $500,000 according to Colonel Joe Miller.

One wave of water is sweeping down the South Canadian river, in Eastern Oklahoma today and another is starting from the western part of the State, according to reports received here.

Reports from Taloga indicate that the stream is at record flood stage with the stream still rising.

Receding flood water of the first wave revealed that the huge steel bridge over the South Canadian at Norman covered only a sand bar while a new channel had been cut half a

Farmer Near Kosse Drugged To Death

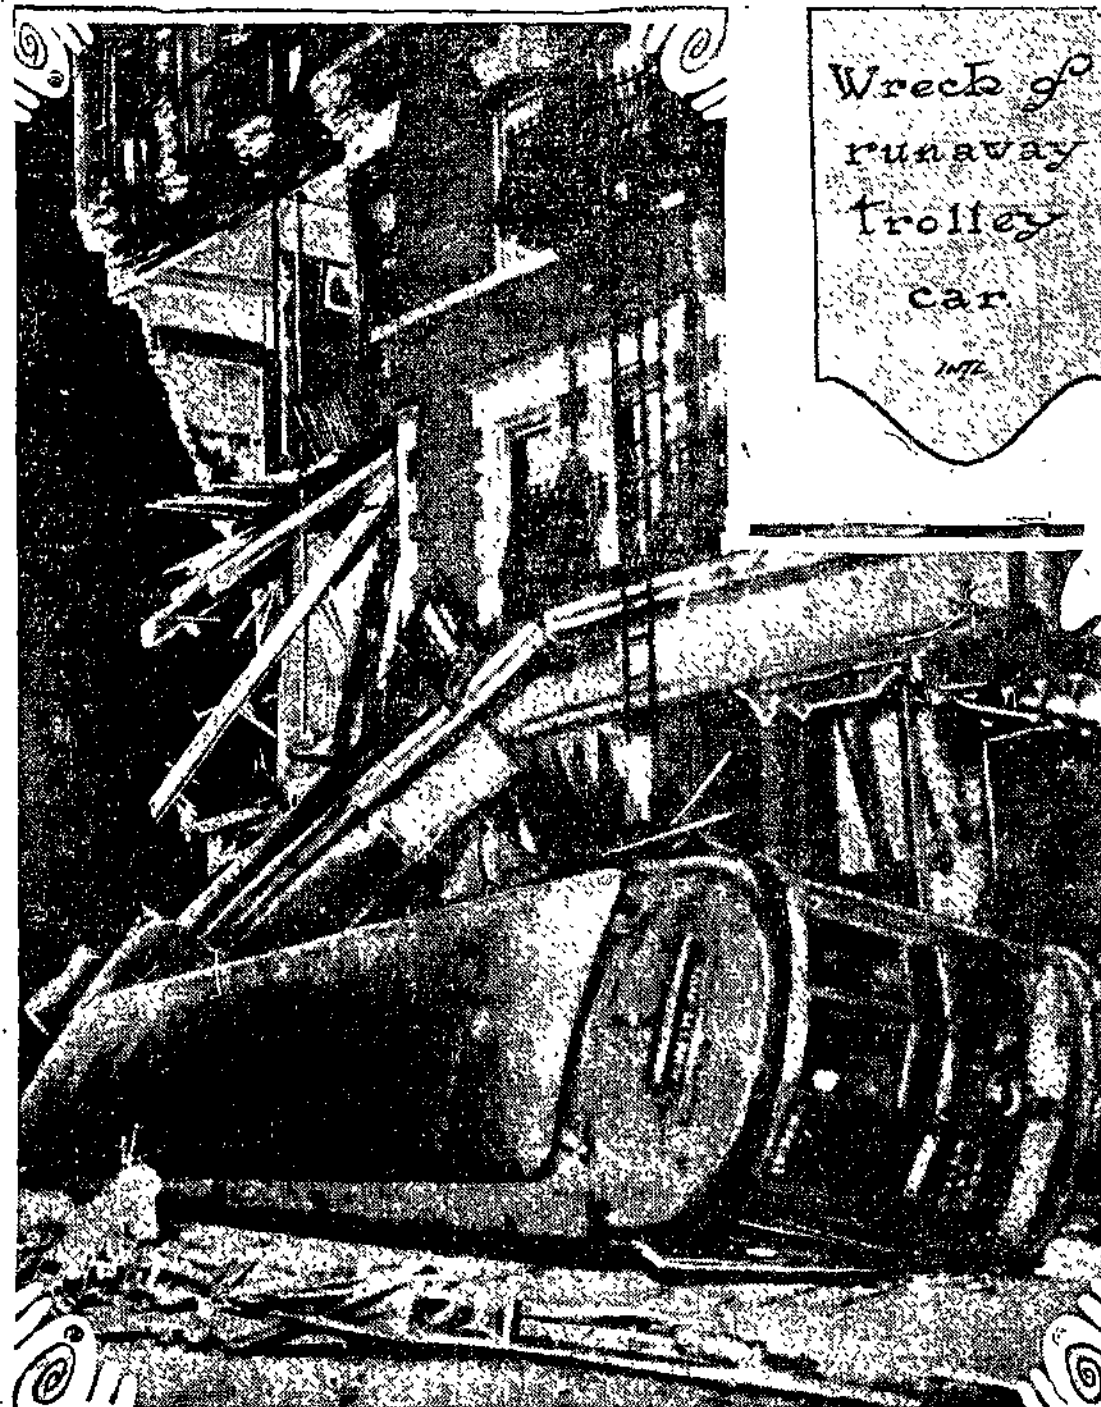

Monday afternoon J. I. Riddle of the Riddle-Barry Undertaking company was called to Kosse to treat the body of a man who had been killed in an accident.

The accident occurred at the home of a Mr. Cox, who lived about seven miles west of Kosse. When Mr. Cox, aged about 55, came in from his farm work at the noon hour he took the bridle off his mules but did not un-bitch the traces, and while feeding the mules kicked one of them to make it move over, when his foot in some way caught in the traces and the mules became frightened and ran, dragging Mr. Cox all over the farm, terribly mauling his body, and he was dead when the mules finally stopped.

CAR KILLS GIRL, WRECKS HOUSE.

A one-man street car operated by Patrick Nelis, of New York, plunged backward down an incline on Amsterdam avenue, in New York, when Nelis lost control, and was not halted until it had crashed into and partially wrecked a six-story apartment house at the foot of the hill. The runaway car, it was estimated, was traveling at the rate of seventy miles an hour when it leaped from the tracks and fatally crushed twelve-year-old Margaret McLaughlin, who was playing near the dwelling. Seven passengers were badly hurt. Nelis, held for homicide, told the police that his brakes failed to work.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY TO OTHERS

"Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity."
—1 Tim. 4-12.

A pebble dropped into a body of water will radiate waves which will finally cover the entire surface of that body and reach to every shore. The influence which emanates from one Christian life extends over unlimited areas of mankind and creates an influence which extends for generations.

Our lives are either a source of influence for good to others or they are a force in the opposite direction. No one can live his life without an influence on others. This influence may not be noticeable but it is always there.

We are not only responsible for our own lives, but we are personally responsible for the influence which our life has upon others. The church is extending a helping hand to everyone, assisting and encouraging us in our efforts to fulfill the responsibility to ourselves and to others which the Creator has placed upon us.

LET ME WALK WITH THE MEN IN THE ROAD

"Is only a half truth the poet has sung
Of the 'house by the side of the way'.
Our Master had neither a house nor a home.
But He walked with the crowd day by day.
And I think when I read of the poet's desire,
That a house by the road would be good;
But service is found in its tenderest form
When we walk with the crowd in the road.

So I say, let me walk with the men in the road,
Let me seek out the burdens that crush;
Let me speak a kind word of good cheer to the weak,
Who are falling behind in the rush.
There are wounds to be healed, there are breaks we must mend,
There's a cup of cold water to give;
And the man in the road by the side of his friend
Is the man who has learned to live.

Then tell me no more of the house by the road,
There is only one place I can live;
It's there with the men who are toiling along,
Who are needing the cheer I can give.
It is pleasant to live in the house by the way,
And be a friend, as the poet has said;
But the Master is bidding us, "Bear ye their load,
For your rest, waketh yonder ahead."

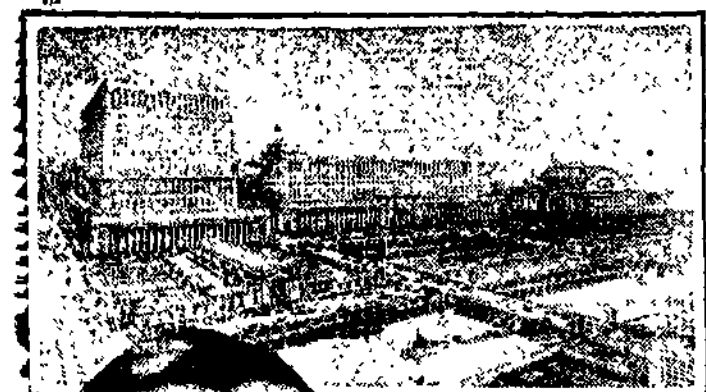

I could not remain in the house by the road
And watch as the toilers go on,
Their faces beclouded with pain and with sin,
So burdened their strength nearly gone.
I'll go to their side, I'll speak in good cheer,
I'll help them to carry their load,
And I'll smile at the man in the house by the way
As I walk with the crowd in the road.

Out there in the road that goes by the house,
Where the poet is singing his song,
I'll walk and I'll work 'midst the heat of the day,
And I'll help falling brothers along—
Too busy to live in the house by the way
Too happy for such an abode,
And my heart sings its praise to the Master of all,
Who is helping me serve in the road.

—Walter J. Green.

Now turbans that are draped on the head are lovely for automobilizing. They are made out of a yard of material that is one-half of a yard wide. The center of the material is gathered into a buckle which is placed over the forehead. The material is then drawn back to the nape of the neck and is then split so as to form two ends which drape about the head in turban fashion and fold under at the sides of the head. If properly adjusted a turban of this sort looks as though it were a hat and on a drupe wound about the head.

train sheds, miles of tracks, its monumental main building of Indiana limestone containing a small city in itself, will be ready next year.

Among the unusual features of the station will be a jail, for the detention of prisoners awaiting transportation; a chapel and a morgue.

The basic architectural idea is that everything having to do with passengers shall be on the same floor: restaurants, ticket offices, waiting rooms, rest rooms and the like. A conception of its size may be gained from the fact that the lobby of the concourse with the subway under Canal street will form a single room 800 feet long and 180 feet wide, communicating with a waiting room 250 feet long and 100 feet wide. The whole construction is being handled without the interruption of a train. The limestone blocks, of many designs and measurements, are all cut at the quarries in Indiana and come numbered so that they may be

CANTOR ROSENBLATT SEEKS
NEW WORLD

Rabbi Joseph Rosenblatt, noted cantor, has sailed from New York, to sing in London, Paris, Berlin and Carlsbad. A host of friends gathered at the pier to bid him bon voyage and chanted the inspiring "El, Eli" just before the vessel left. Rosenblatt is the noted tenor who has consistently rejected large offers to appear on the operatic stage.

Children in Russia have learned to smile again. Among the youngsters who are still being fed by American sets are infrequently girls with rosy cheeks and as happy smiles as these three young Muscovites whose tin dishes, wooden spoons, fresh rolls baked from white American flour show plainly that they have just come from an American Relief Administration kitchen. The photograph below reveals another phase of American relief in Russia. The famine this winter is not comparable to that of a year ago. The American Relief Administration, of which Herbert Hoover is chairman, has had to feed children in certain districts where the crops were poor and in governmental homes and orphanages where suitable milk and fava needed by growing boys and girls for a balanced ration were not available. It will continue this feeding up to the next harvest, at least, and according to the best estimates available, 2,000,000 will be the maximum number of children who will have to depend upon A. R. A. rations. A year ago before the harvest could be gathered the A. R. A. was feeding more than 10,000,000 children and adults in Russia.

CHICAGO—Long earrings and many bracelets are the outstanding features of this season's styles in jewelry.

Miss Sally Milgrim of New York, who was in Chicago recently, wore a typical array of jewels and accessories such as "everybody" is wearing in France," she said. The earrings are a little more than three inches in length and are made up of strings of pearls and diamonds hanging from a little cluster of diamonds, pearls, and black onyx.

THE LIMA BEANS OF '23

By HEDDA HOYT
Fashion Editor of the United Press
(Written for the United Press)

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 6.—What will eventually become of the feminine figure?

In recent years the ideal of perfect womanhood has dwindled from a "perfect 36" to an imperfect 34. We used to think that a girl couldn't be beautiful unless she had a figure with a certain amount of natural curves. We accepted the idea that Venus de Milo was the perfect type of womanhood and we sought to be as nearly like her as possible.

But the fashionable feminine figure has grown smaller and smaller in the last decade until today an angular curveless size 34 is considered the ideal figure. "Perfect 36's are all dieting or taking up violent physical exercises in order to reduce.

The models of a year ago are out of work and in their places are an emaciated lot of tall, gaunt women that look like refugees. Most of them are so painfully thin that they would have been shelved as old maids ten years ago.

The Lima Bean Shape
Their figures remind one of the traditional "bar of soap after a week's wash." They resemble in shape the lima bean and their only curves are located at the joining of the foot to the ankle or perhaps on the left leg where a little wave of bills bulges the stocking. Their soda appetites augment the bank roll, if not the figure.

To be in perfect form today a woman must be hipless, waistless, bustless and footless. It's pretty hard on the girl who has been brought up to believe in athletics, for she can't hope to compete with the women who look as if they were in the last stages of a wasting disease.

The normal, wholesome body is decidedly not in the style according to the modistes and gown manufacturers. Some of us, however, will be old-fashioned enough to continue believing that Venus is the perfect type of beauty, regardless of the 1923 verdict. Others will diet for style's sake and steam themselves in Turkish baths from size 38's to 34's.

In the meantime what's to become of womanhood if this narrowing and reducing of the feminine figure continues?

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION

NO. 16

Proposing an amendment to Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, which relates to taxation and revenues, by adding thereto a new section to be known as

Section 9a, directing the Legislature to provide for the construction, operation and maintenance, under State control, of a State system of public highways; providing for an election for the ratification or rejection of amendment herein proposed, and making an appropriation to defray the expense of said election.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That there be submitted to the people of Texas, for ratification or rejection at a special election provided for herein an amendment to Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, amending said Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding thereto a new section to be known as Section 9a, which shall read as follows:

Section 9a. The Legislature is authorized and directed to provide for the creation, establishment, construction, maintenance and repair of a system of improved highways throughout the State to be under the control of the State; and in order that the State may provide the means, revenues and instrumentalities for the establishment and maintenance of such system of highways, the Legislature is empowered to levy and cause to be collected specific excise and ad valorem taxes, in addition to those permitted for other purposes in the Constitution, but such an ad valorem tax shall be imposed only for the purpose of returning the bonds authorized by vote of the people of this State as provided for hereinafter in this Section.

When said system shall have been designated and taken over for the State as provided in Section 4a hereof, the Legislature is authorized to make provision for the equitable compensation to such counties for the value of such improvements as have been theretofore constructed by the counties in the State.

Provided, also that the State highway system in all other respects, Counties shall have the right to build, construct and maintain roads, turnpikes, and bridges within their respective boundaries and the Constitutional provisions relating thereto are not qualified or repealed by reason hereof.

The Legislature, at any Regular or Special Session, is authorized and directed to pass and cause to be appropriate legislation necessary to carry out and effectuate the purpose and intent of these Articles.

Sec. 2. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to cause to be issued his necessary proclamation for an election to be held on the fourth Saturday in July, 1923, at which election the qualified electors of this State for adoption or rejection of this Article shall be required by the Constitution and Laws of the State. Said election shall be held under and in accordance with the General Election Laws of the State, and the ballots for said election shall have printed or written thereon in plain letters the following words:

"OFFICIAL BALLOT": "For the amendment to Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing for a State system of highways."

Those voters who favor such amendment shall erase by marking a line through the word "against" the Amendment to Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing for a State system of highways. Those who oppose such amendment shall erase by marking a line through them, the words, "For the amendment to Article 8 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing for a State system of highways." And the result of the election shall be published and delivered according to the majority of the votes cast in such election.

Sec. 3. The sum of Five Thousand Dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the treasury not otherwise appropriated for the purpose of paying the necessary expenses of the proclamation and publication of this amendment and the election to be held hereunder.

Secretary of State.

Corn-Fed Russian Waifs Are Living Testimonials to Success of American Relief Administrations Activities

SAVED FROM FAMINE BY AMERICA

These round-faced, plump cheeked boys and girls are all American-fed salvage from the Russian famine. They come from the Ufa district in the Ural region where last year famine conditions were at the worst. The photograph, taken in March, 1923, in the Central children's home at Sterlitmak, was recently received by the American Relief Administration from W. L. Bell, the American supervisor of the district. "A year ago," Mr. Bell writes, "these children were sleeping six to eight in a bed, without clothes, without blankets, and many were starving for want of food or freezing for want of fuel. This year they are clothed, warm, fat and happy. The home was supplied with wood collected by adult famine victims in return for their labor, food was furnished for the children by the American Relief Administration, as was also the bedding shown in the picture. The American Relief Administration, of which Herbert Hoover is chairman, is still feeding some 9,000,000 children in Russia and will continue its work at least until the coming harvest in August. The feeding during the past winter has been confined largely to the children's homes and other institutions, although open kitchens have been maintained in some places where such institutional feeding seemed in adequate to meet the need. Its medical program, which has resulted in the equipment of many hospitals which otherwise would have had to close their doors, and in checking the spread of typhus, cholera, and other diseases that were widely epidemic, is still going forward.

West Virginia Governor May Lose Eyesight

According to The Charleston Gazette former Governor John J. Cornwell of West Virginia, is rapidly losing his vision. The article is as follows:

BERKELEY SPRINGS, W. VA., June 2.—Former Governor John J. Cornwell, of the adjoining county of Hampshire, is rapidly losing his vision, according to a report printed in the current issue of the Morgan Messenger.

The newspaper declares that the information is apparently authoritative but expresses the hope that the reports are not correct. It stated that the friends of the former governor, now chief counsel for the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, fear that he will go blind.

Governor Cornwell is known and beloved by many in Mexico. He was a member of a distinguished party of guests of Colonel Albert E. Humphreys about two years ago and while here dedicated the bridge at the Colonel's famous and popular playgrounds. In commenting on the above article, Colonel Humphreys expressed deep regret and stated that he hoped that the report was exaggerated. Other friends here also hope that he will early recover his sight completely and continue to live many years of

HARDING VS. FORD OR UNDERWOOD?

Henry J. Allen

Henry J. Allen, former Republican Governor of Kansas, has stated, in London, his belief that President Harding will be a candidate for reelection and that he will be opposed by either Henry Ford, automobile manufacturer, or Oscar W. Underwood, United States Senator from Alabama. Allen denied that he intends to seek the Republican nomination. Democratic leaders, he said, are for Underwood, but he is sceptical about their ability to control the national convention.

mile away from the bridge.

Railroad service out of here is hit hard and freight embargoes have been put on by several roads.

TULSA

TULSA, Okla., June 12.—Although a United States Weather Bureau warning from Fort Smith received here yesterday predicted the Arkansas river here to reach a flood stage of 17½ feet, old time river men and Indians who have watched the muddy Arkansas for many years said the ten foot rise which inundated Wichita and Arkansas City, Kansas, would not affect the river at this point to anything like the degree it did in the Kansas towns.

The river rose two feet an hour for five hours at Arkansas City Sunday evening but beginning last night at 11 p. m. the rise here was but two inches an hour. This two inch rise here was maintained until 7 o'clock this morning, bringing the waters to 14.9 feet, nearly three feet below the official prediction.

Many families have moved out of the low lands here and if the river rises the full three more feet authorities say West Tulsa will be inundated.

KANSAS

WICHITA, Kas., June 12.—The flood situation here was as follows:

Little Arkansas river rising again but only slightly.

Big Arkansas river is about stationary. The Little Arkansas began rising early Monday evening at Heller's Grove. Two hours later it stopped, falling in Wichita, and one hour later it registered a rise of two-tenths of a foot, according to local meteorologist Peterson.

The crest of the new rise will be practically the same as the stage maintained Sunday night when water was breaking over at various points along its channel from Tenth street northward, Mr. Peterson declared. This will mean, he says, that the section inundated Sunday night and which practically cleared of water Monday night will again be flooded this morning.

GIBBONS NO CINCH, SAYS FARRELL

By HENRY I. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
NEW YORK, June 12.—Jack Dempsey for the defense of his title against Tommy Gibbons in Shelby on July 4.

The champion insists that he is not underestimating the ability of his challenger and that he considers himself in for a hard fight.

His real opinion of the ability of Gibbons, however, is reflected in the attitude of his manager, who is working up other contests for the champion with the apparent idea that Gibbons is already defeated.
One wit in New York made the crack that all the training Dempsey would have to do to get ready for the ring on July 4 would be to grow a beard. Jess Willard didn't even take the trouble to let his whiskers grow at Toledo, and it is history what happened to him.
It is all a matter of opinion, but those who are considering Gibbons as such a set-up for the champion should consider that no fighter, no matter how great he is, can afford to stay out of the ring for two years and go back against any kind of an opponent without getting himself in good condition.
Gibbons is being underestimated by practically all the critics in the East. Some of the feeling against the challenger can be traced and some of it is due no doubt to the desire to make light of the fight, because it is not being fought in the East.
Tommy Gibbons is a dangerous fighter and a good fighter. He will be in condition because he has been fighting a lot in the last three years and he always keeps himself in shape.
If the feeling that Gibbons is a mark for Dempsey is at all general

among the fight fans, all over the country, there are the makings of the biggest surprise in years in the Shelby bout.

Officer's Grit Overawed Negro

DALLAS, Texas June 12.—The daring of the local police force was again demonstrated here recently by Squad Officer Allen.

Accompanied by a fellow officer Allen responded to a call when told of an altercation between negroes in the negro residential section here. As the officers neared the scene a negro ran out of a house carrying a Winchester rifle and dodged between two adjoining frame buildings. Allen, while giving pursuit, stumbled and found himself jammed against the muzzle of the loaded gun, with the negro's finger on the trigger. A battle of nerves followed. The keen, calm eyes of the officer bored into those of the black. Suddenly Allen whipped out his revolver and the negro simultaneously dropped the rifle, threw up his hands and submitted to arrest.

PARIS CITY OF DEAD

PARIS, June 12.—The Paris catacombs—the famous subterranean city of the dead—recently reopened after being closed throughout the war, are again becoming one of the showplaces of Paris. Scores of Americans make the trip through the weird underground vaults. The vast labyrinth corridors cut from stone hold the skeletons of more than three million persons who have died in Paris during several centuries. Nowhere in modern civilization have the remains of the dead been employed on such a scale for ornamental and show purposes. Hundreds of thousands of skulls, arm and leg bones are arranged in artistic patterns and mosaics on the walls. In other corridors the bones and skulls are piled neatly in square piles. On one wall is a great spider, its body formed of skulls, the legs of leg bones.

The apple contains a larger percentage of phosphorus than any other fruit.

A new turn in the Stillman divorce scandal—which shook the nation when James A. Stillman, then head of the National City Bank, the greatest financial institution in America, charged that Fred Beauvais, a Canadian Indian guide, was the father of Guy Stillman, youngest son of his wife, Mrs. Anne Urquhart Stillman—has been reached. Mrs. Stillman was vindicated, and she in turn charged that Stillman was the father of Jay Leeds, son of Florence Leeds, a former stage beauty, and that Stillman was maintaining Mrs. Leeds in luxury. Now Mrs. Leeds declares she is contemplating suit against Stillman for the $1,500 a month he formerly paid her for the support of the child. She alleges Stillman paid this sum all during the divorce suit and then cast her off. Mrs. Stillman, in a remarkable interview, declared her children have been brought up to believe Jay Leeds was their half-brother and offered to rear the child herself if Mrs. Leeds has to give it up.

Taint Fair To Thus Work Te Bees Overtime

CALLEN, Texas June 12.—Raising queen bees for shipment to all parts of the United States and many foreign countries nets E. B. Ault, of near here, an annual revenue of more than $50,000.

Ault's queen bee farm is now in its twelfth year of operation.

Artificial means of obtaining the queens must be resorted to, Ault explains, in order to make the business profitable. If queens would be obtained each year.

When it was learned that bees, like carpenters, work according to the architect's plans and specifications, Ault began building large cells for the queens in an artificial way foundation. As a result he gets about 100 queen bees from each hive instead of only one as the case would be if the bees were allowed to take their own course.

After the queen cells have been built, the larvae of ordinary workers are placed in the cells, which are noticed. These, then those of the workers and the bees provide a "royal food" for the queen. This food, together with a few drops of honey, promotes the development of the queen.

The queen bees are shipped in small cages fitted with a fine mesh wire which the queen can penetrate and three or four workers are placed in the container to attend the queen. Another new phase of the bee industry developed by Ault is that of "growing out" many of his swarms. When the honey-making season closes, Ault ships his hives to other parts of the United States where the bees continue their work.

This departure promises to become an important branch of the bee business, Ault says.

Announcement

We wish to announce to the public of Mexia that our NEW WAY LAUNDRY is now open for business and for the inspection of the entire citizenship of Mexia.

We cordially invite you to visit our Laundry this week. We would be grateful for the opportunity to show you our New Methods in laundering your daintiest wearing apparel, and the entire family wash. We also wish to impress upon you that this is one of Mexia's Own Industries and that you are entitled to laundry service supreme, and we cordially invite you to call the management for better service any time that you fail to get the best.

CLOTHES

Our Ultra Modern Methods conserve the life of clothes, because we wash them without rubbing and with White Naptha and Ivory Soap in purest soft water.

Money

Taking into consideration wages, meals, car fare, soap supplies and fuel, our NEW WAY of washing is far more economical.

TIME

A few minutes gathering up the family bundle; a phone call; then forget the washday troubles for the NEW WAY will handle it right.

What Clothes Must I Send To The Laundry?

Send your entire family washing to the NEW WAY this week. Send us your blouses, aprons, shirts, sheets, collars, curtains, underwear, baby's clothes—everything—we have a service on all that will please you. Keep tab on expenses, time, energy and wear, and compare with the old antiquated unsanitary way.

Look! Look! What The Mexia Daily News Has to Offer You

12 MONTHS FOR $1.50 AND A FEW WORDS

-THE MEXIA DAILY NEWS will start a campaign for subscriptions June 15th for subscribers in Limestone and Freestone counties, by mail. Now here is the plan:

$1.50 and Two Subscribers at $2.00 Each

will entitle you and the two subscribers to The Mexia Daily News for one year—one of the best daily papers in Central Texas. Now you have heard about bargains and about sales but to think of receiving at your home each day by mail, a daily paper for the small amount of $2.

-This campaign will positively close July 15th and this marvelous offer we are making you cannot be overlooked as it is our intention to place The Mexia Daily News in every home in these two counties. There will be in the next twelve months, big issues concerning the welfare of our county and state and our motto will be as in the past to publish cold facts. You will also find thru the columns of our paper advertisements bargains offered by the merchants that will repay you a dozen times for the small costs of The News. The Mexia Daily News carries all foreign news, local news, sport news, oil news, farm news, comics—the old favorite Jiggs and Maggie and various other features.

-Now remember: Enclose The Mexia Daily News a check for $5.50 with two additional names and each will receive the paper for twelve months. Now this is strictly for papers sent out by mail embracing Limestone and adjoining counties. No subscription will be taken over fifty miles from Mexia or in Mexia where delivered by carrier for less than the regular price.

Aged Parrot Dies At Temple, Texas

TEMPLE, Texas June 12.—Hosea Rasbury, night merchant police, had a special casket made and the bird's body embalmed when his pet parrot died here recently.

He then laid off from his duties long enough to take the parrot to Kemper where it was interred in the family burial plot.

The bird was obtained in Mexico forty years ago and it is not known how old it was at that time although parrots have been known to live past the 100 year mark.

LET'S SHAKE, NEIGHBORS

The Corsicana Sun praises Gumbo Pitcher Cantrell and bemoans the loss of the game last Sunday to the Mexia Gushers thuswise:

Joe Cantrell hurled the greatest exhibition of nerve, grit, determination, real mound duty and consistent game of baseball which has been played on the Gumbo Buster park this season, taking into consideration the eighteen innings pitched by Tiner of Mexia Friday. The Gumbo Busters lost 4 to 3 in fifteen innings. In view of the fact that his team-mates made eight errors, in view of the fact that his support would weaken at crucial times, although his team-mates worked faithfully and hard, and also the opposition playing an errorless game, to say nothing of questionable decisions by the arbiter bears out the high words of praise which hwas on the lips of all fans present at the ball game Saturday afternoon.

Tiner Pitches Brilliant One Hit Game Monday

Bryan Stellar Batsman In Gusher's Success

The fastest game of the season took place at Gusher Park Monday afternoon when the local club trounced the visiting delegation from Marlin 8 to 0. The game lasted only an hour and thirteen minutes, but it was one that met the approval of the fans present and is recorded as the fastest game of the season thus far.

Marlin staged a great battle but failed to win, although playing almost errorless ball behind Andrews who allowed the hitting Gushers 7 hits.

He did his best to win by securing the only hit off of Tiner's whip.

To Tiner would have gone the credit of having pitched a no hit game had it not been for this single of Andrews.

Bryan had a big day, too. He pelted the ball for a homer and a two bagger.

Texas Solons Deplore N. Y. Act On Prohi

AUSTIN, June 12.—The action of the New York legislature in repealing the Prohibition Enforcement Law of that state is deplored in a resolution introduced in the House of Representatives. Prohibition forces in the House are in the majority and it is believed that the resolution will be adopted when it is considered tomorrow. The adoption of the resolution would also place the House on record as being in favor of a vigorous enforcement of the liquor laws in the state, and a close co-operation between state and federal "dry" agents.

Health Scholarships Offered As Education Step By American Child Health Association Forces

DR. THOMAS D. WOOD

MISS SALLY LUCAS JEAN

"America is more and more awakening to the truth that the strength of a nation is the strength of its boys and girls. War with its physical examinations drove home the fact of our national need of increased health and strength. Statistics show that 30% of the school children of our country are undernourished.

The American Child Health Association, believing that health is a matter of sound education, and that no greater creed can be spread through the world than the gospel of good health, has instituted an unique series of health scholarships. The sum of $10,000 has been allotted to these scholarships, which are to be awarded to teachers in service for training in health education. Conditions provide that the awards will include five fellowships of not more than $1,000 each and five of not more than $500 each. Several fellowships will also be awarded to teachers to defray their expenses on tours of observation to demonstration centers of effective work in health education. Thomas D. Wood, M.D., of Teachers' College, Columbia University, is the chairman of the Scholarship Committee, and Miss Sally Lucas Jean, Director of the Department of Health Education of the American Child Health Association, will head the work for the Association.

Dr. Wood and Miss Jean announce that the purpose of these health scholarships is two-fold. In the first place, it is to help promising teachers and leaders in the field of health education to improve their professional qualifications for work in this field. In the second place, it is to stimulate the formation of adequate training courses in health education throughout the country, by urging Normal schools, colleges, universities and other training centers to take stock of the work offered by their institutions in subject matter and methods of health education, the opportunities for practice teaching in health education under supervision, and the opportunities afforded by their institution for healthful living, and supervision of the students' health.

The basis of award, the American Child Health Association announces, will take into consideration the past achievements of the teacher in health education in her field, her plans for health education in the future, and documentary evidence regarding the quality of her work from outstanding educators in her community. The institutions to which the teachers are assigned will be required to meet certain standards determined by the Fellowship Committee.

Fellowships and scholarships providing for a year's study will go into effect with the beginning of the school year, or in the fall of 1928. Summer school, Chautauqua and travelling scholarships will go into effect during the summer of 1928. Teachers who wish to compete for these awards are asked to send in their applications to the Committee on Teacher Scholarships and Fellowships of the American Child Health Association, 370 Seventh Avenue, New York City.

Mexia Daily News His Favorite Paper

Bud Mills, who left here several months ago, and located at San Benito, in the magic valley, is here with his family visiting relatives and friends for a few days. Mr. Mills says, he is well pleased with his new home, but still likes Mexia, and keeps up with matters up here, as he gets the Daily News every morning and reads it first of his papers, and that he cannot do without his home paper.

This Tremendous Market Reached Daily

THEY ARE COMING

-If there is any doubt yet remaining in the minds of Mexia people that the Mexia Dry Goods Store is being sold out, let them come and see for themselves. People are literally flocking to this sale from every point of the compass and there is an endless stream of merchandise flowing out of our door all day long.

BUT WHAT OF THAT? THERE IS NOTHING IN THAT TO BOAST ABOUT. IT IS NOT AT ALL STRANGE.

-Truth is, the people of Mexia are judges of merchandise and know bargains. Any one could take a full stock of high grade, gilt edge merchandise and sell it at these prices. It doesn't require salesmanship to sell goods at a loss of profit, such as this Closing Out Sale. It only requires physical ability to deliver them fast enough!

NOW HERE'S FAIR WARNING

-If you are in the market now or expect to be any time in the future, for anything in the Dry Goods Line, Wearing Apparel, Novelty Notions, Shoes, Trunks or Traveling Goods and you fail to avail yourself of the privilege of saving from—

33 1-3 To 60 Per Cent

-on each and every purchase you have a perfect right to do so, but it can plainly be seen that the rank and file of Mexia people are exercising better judgment. You could not buy goods in this sale at the regular price asked by other stores if you wanted to. Every article in this store is marked with the Red Tag and in every instance the tag shows a reduction from all former prices.

-Our stocks are holding up well considering the inroads we are making into them, but every day you put off your purchases your chances are that much less.

1000 Panic Stricken In Chicago Fire

1,000 persons, including 250 women, were thrown into a sea of panic shortly before midnight when routed from top floors of the 20 story Capitol building by fire which was estimated today to have done $100,000 damage.

Smoke and fire filled sections of elevator shafts and stairways. Elevator men heroically ran their cages through the burning floors, taking down hysterical women attending an Eastern Star ritual. Many of the women fainted. Several hundred members of the Knights Templar and members of the Chicago Vending Machine association ran down stairways through which water cascaded after being released on the top floors where the fire damaged the structure.

Thousands from surrounding streets watched the unusual blaze. Two firemen were overcome by smoke.

HARDING WILL SEE RICHES IN ALASKA TIMBER

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Even if he gets no farther than the Alaska of the tourist when he visits Alaska this summer, President Harding will see a wonderland. But if he gets into the country he will find still more wonders and see the undeveloped wealth of an empire, for with its 590,000 square miles the territory is one-third larger than the Atlantic states from Maine to Florida.

Yet ninety per cent of the towns and mining camps can be reached rapidly from any part of the world by telegraph and telephone. The United States Navy operates radio stations at Cordova, Dutch Harbor, Saint George, Saint Paul Island and Sitka. The Signal Corps now operates more than 4,000 miles of wireless, land lines and cable.

Perhaps the President will see the Coast range north of Cross Sound which has twelve peaks that exceed 10,000 feet while Saint Elias reaches 18,024 and Logan 19,540 above the sea. Then there are the glaciers, the last of the ice age. Some of them have faces three miles across and 300 feet high. The greatest ice mass is the Malaspine glacier on the Southern side of Saint Elias. This has an area of about 1,200 square miles.

None is not any nearer Sitka than Boston is to Tampa. This gives you an idea of the territorial empire the head of the nation will visit. It was 56 years ago in May that the United States paid Russia $7,200,000 for the territory. Uncle Sam occupied the territory in the following October.

Untold Wealth
In the untold wealth of the country gold, copper, fisheries, and many things figure. Perhaps the most important of all natural resources, says Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the American Tree association is the forest wealth. Their importance in connection with the future economic position of the United States can not be over estimated. Neither can their bearing on the newsprint production be over estimated.

There are two great national forests in Alaska. They cover 20,579,740 acres or about 5 1/2 per cent of the total area of Alaska. The larger of these woodlands, the Tongass National Forest, is estimated to contain 70,000,000 board feet of timber ripe for marketing. Stand of 100,000 board feet per acre are not infrequent.

This is the Alaskan forest that will some day be shipping large amounts of timber to the States. It has over 12,000 miles of shore line and ninety per cent of the usable timber is within two miles of tidewater. This makes it easy to log the timber and load the lumber directly from the forest to

Memorial Services of B. P. O. E. To Be Held At First Christian Church Thursday Night Of The Present Week

Charles L. Cloyer, Secretary of the Elks Club states that the Mexia B. P. O. E. will gather Thursday night at the First Christian Church for the annual memorial services which is observed by all Elk lodges in America. He urges all members to be present and the public generally is invited to attend. The address will be delivered by Rev. G. T. Reaves, pastor of the Christian Church. The program in full will be published Wednesday.

What A Wonderful Place - Is Bonham

BONHAM, Texas, June 12.—A batch of three dozen eggs, laid away in a store room for almost a year have started to hatch, "without a mother to guide them."

The eggs are a part of a shipment received here last summer by a local buyer who laid them aside after candling them because he found them unfit for sale.

Without ever having been touched, and subjected to the changing temperatures of summer, fall, winter and spring, the eggs have started hatching. Four little chicks have already hopped out of their incient shells and more are expected.

No sitting accommodation for congregations was provided in churches before the Fourteenth century. People sat on straw or rushes laid on the floor.

The Stuart Auto Supply Company will move their business to the McDonald building at the corner of Commerce and McKinney.

the steamers. This forest is 1,500 miles closer to the mainland markets than is the other Alaskan National Forest.

The other big timberland is the Chugach national forest. It is a smaller edition of the Tongass Forest. Its trees are not so large and the stand of timber only about one-half as heavy as in the Tongass. Experts estimate that it contains 7,000,000,000 board feet of lumber. Western hemlock predominates. There is also much spruce, poplar and birch. Stands of 40,000 to 50,000 feet of lumber an acre are not unusual.

The lumber of the Chugach National Forest will play an important part in the industrial life of Alaska. Even now, it is used by the fishing, mining, railroad and agricultural interests.

Source of Print Paper
Alaska will probably develop into one of the principal paper sources of the United States, Pack points out. National forests in Alaska contain approximately 100,000,000 cords of timber suitable for paper manufacture. Experts report that these forests could produce 2,000,000 cords of pulpwood annually for centuries without depletion. About 6,000,000 tons of pulpwood annually are required to keep us supplied with enough paper. The Tongass National Forest could easily supply one-third of this amount indefinitely. This forest also is rich in water power.

If a pulp and paper industry is built up in Alaska, it will be of great benefit to that northern country. It will increase the population by creating a demand for more labor. It will aid the farming operations by making a home market for their products. It will improve transportation and develop all kinds of business.

Discovery of gold in 1898 served to direct the attention of the public anew to Alaska. Much history has been made since Peter the Great drew up a program for exploring Alaska just a few days before his death. It was not until 1741 that Bering got into the country as the representative of the Czar. The czars have gone but Alaska still remains, perhaps the greatest asset Uncle Sam possesses.

THREE KILLED IN THE RUHR AS SABOTAGE GROWS

PARIS, June 12.—Two Germans and a French soldier were killed in the Ruhr today and another German died of wounds.

Four explosions occurred on railway lines and sabotage and unrest appeared to be growing.

A French sentinel was shot and killed as he walked his post at Recklinghausen. Later a German civilian is reported to have been slain by French troops at that city. Another was killed at Dortmund, where one died of wounds received when the French shot 35 persons who were out after curfew.

Flood Worst In History In North Oklahoma

DALLAS, June 12.—Hundreds are homeless in this section as the result of flood waters which swept down the Trinity, making the stream at this point a roaring torrent.

The Trinity rose four feet during the night, reaching the height of 37 4-10 feet, and still rising. It is not expected to go more than a foot higher, however. Normal stage is about 14 feet.

Damage is said to be negligible because sufficient warning was given residents in the flooded areas to move valuables from their homes. Truck crops are washed out. This comprises the chief damage.

PONCA CITY, Okla., June 12.—Ponca City is marooned today, although the Chickasha river is falling only airplane and boats furnish outlets from here. The combined damage resulting from rampages of the Arkansas, Chickasha and Salt Fork rivers in Kay county alone is estimated at more than two million.

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 12.—With northern Oklahoma prostrate from one of the worst floods in its history, northern and eastern parts of the State were feeling the force of the floods today.

Big Jess Willard, who was marooned at the 101 Ranch, assumed the role of life guard, carrying several women and children to higher ground and aiding in the rescue of livestock.

Half a dozen rivers swept south-eastward through the eastern part of the State heavily freighted with debris from wreckage up-streams.

Farmers, forewarned, fled before the rush of the waters driving their stock before them.

Property loss will mount into millions according to reports from the inundated areas. Property loss alone to the Miller Brothers' 101 Ranch, will amount to more than $500,000 according to Colonel Joe Miller.

One wave of water is sweeping down the South Canadian river in Eastern Oklahoma today and another is starting from the western part of the State, according to reports received here.

Reports from Taloga indicate that the stream is at record flood stage with the stream still rising.

Receding flood water of the first wave revealed that the huge steel bridge over the South Canadian at Norman covered only a sand bar while a new channel had been cut half a (Continued on Page 3.)

Farmer Near Kosse Drugged To Death

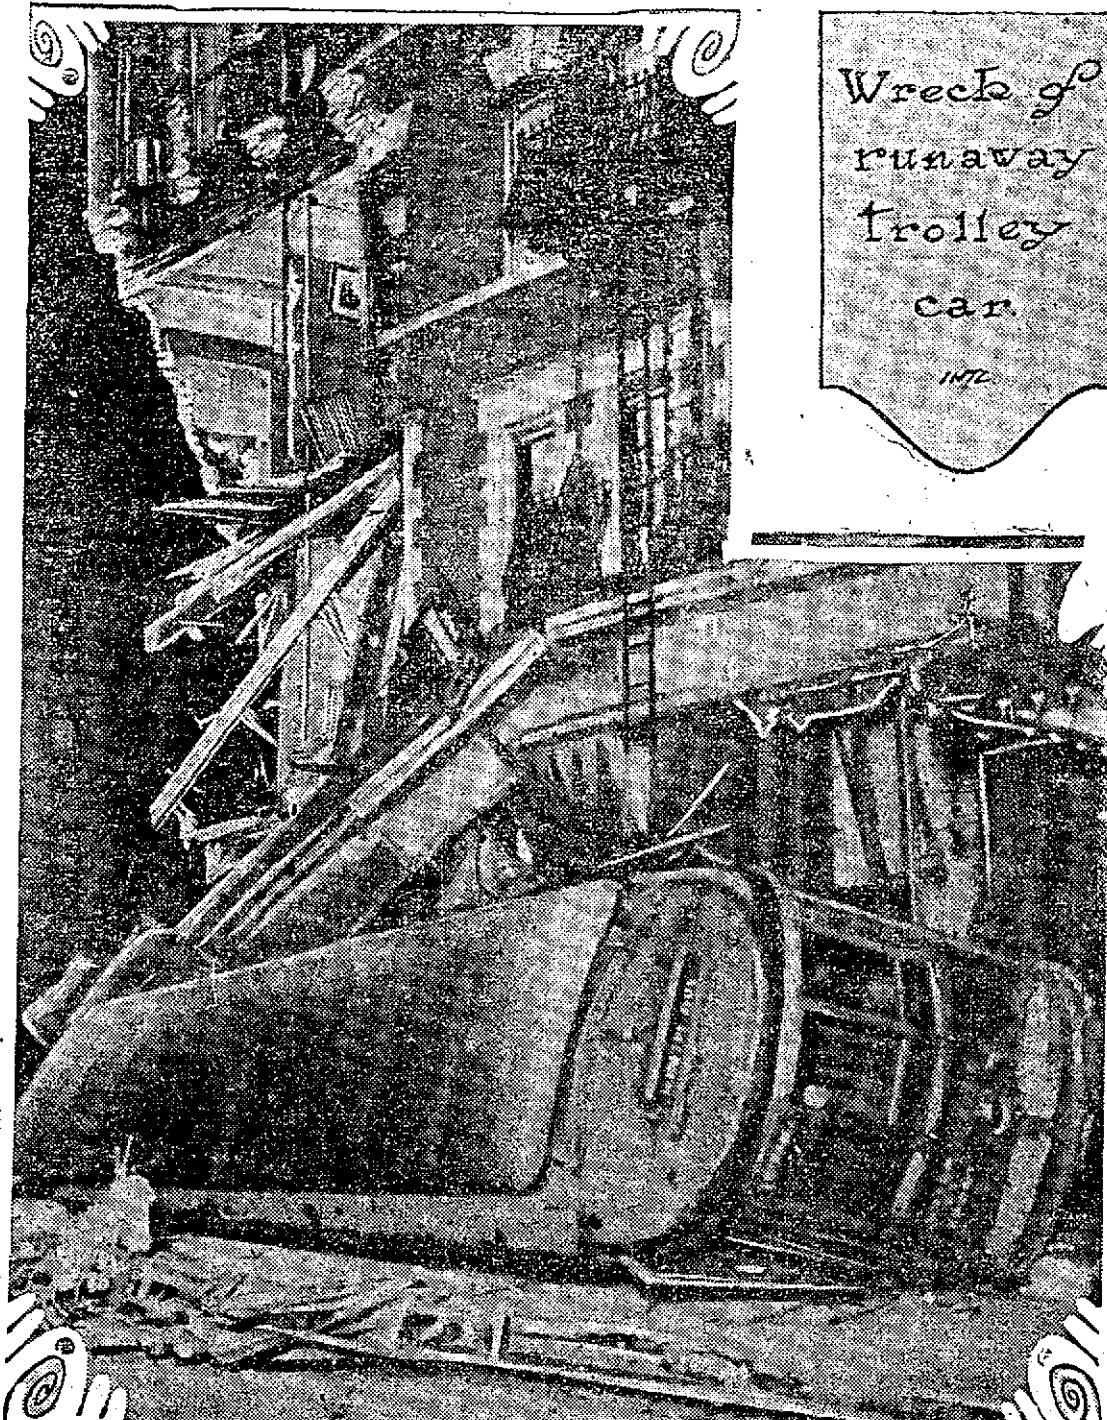

Monday afternoon J. J. Riddle of the Riddle-Barry Undertaking company was called to Kosse to treat the body of a man who had been killed in an accident.

The accident occurred at the home of a Mr. Cox, who lived about seven miles west of Kosse. When Mr. Cox, aged about 55, came in from his farm work at the noon hour he took the bridle off his mules but did not unhitch the traces, and while feeding the mules kicked one of them to make it move over, when his foot in some way caught in the traces and the mules became frightened and ran, dragging Mr. Cox all over the farm, terribly mangle his body, and he was dead when the mules finally stopped.

CAR KILLS GIRL, WRECKS HOUSE.

A one-man street car operated by Patrick Nelis, of New York, plunged backward down an incline on Amsterdam avenue, in New York, when Nelis lost control, and was not halted until it had crashed into and partially wrecked a six-story apartment house at the foot of the hill. The runaway car, it was estimated, was traveling at the rate of seventy miles an hour when it leaped from the tracks and fatally crushed twelve-year-old Margaret McLaughlin, who was playing near the dwelling. Seven passengers were badly hurt. Nelis, held for homicide, told the police that his brakes failed to work.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY TO OTHERS

"Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity."
—1 Tim. 4-12.

A pebble dropped into a body of water will radiate waves which will finally cover the entire surface of that body and reach to every shore. The influence which emanates from one Christian life extends over unlimited areas of mankind and creates an influence which extends for generations.

Our lives are either a source of influence for good to others or they are a force in the opposite direction. No one can live his life without an influence on others. This influence may not be noticeable but it is always there.

We are not only responsible for our own lives, but we are personally responsible for the influence which our life has upon others. The church is extending a helping hand to everyone, assisting and encouraging us in our efforts to fulfill the responsibility to ourselves and to others which the Creator has placed upon us.

LET ME WALK WITH THE MEN IN THE ROAD

"The only half truth the poet has sung
Of the 'house by the side of the way';
Our Master had neither a house nor a home,
But He walked with the crowd day by day.
And I think when I read of the poet's desire,
That a house by the road would be good;
But service is found in its tenderest form,
When we walk with the crowd in the road."

So I say, let me walk with the men in the road,
Let me seek out the burdens that crush;
Let me speak a kind word of good cheer to the weak,
Who are falling behind in the rush.

There are wounds to be healed, there are breaks we must mend,
There's a cup of cold water to give;
And the man in the road by the side of his friend
Is the man who has learned to live.

Then tell me no more of the house by the road,
There is only one place I can live;
It's there with the men who are toiling along,
Who are needing the cheer I can give.
It is pleasant to live in the house by the way,
And be a friend, as the poet has said;
But the Master is bidding us, "Bear ye their load,
For your rest waiteth yonder ahead."

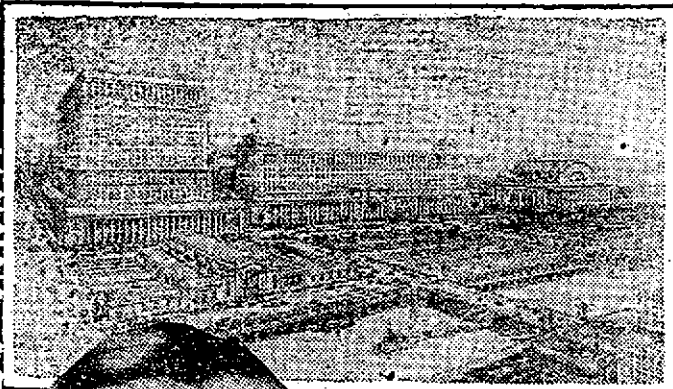

I could not remain in the house by the road
And watch the toilers go on;
Their faces beclouded with pain and with sin,
So burdened their strength nearly gone.
I'll go to their side, I'll speak in good cheer,
I'll help them to carry their load,
And I'll smile at the man in the house by the way
As I walk with the crowd in the road.

Out there in the road that goes by the house,
Where the poet is singing his song,
I'll walk with the men 'midst the heat of the day,
And I'll help falling brothers along—
Too busy to live in the house by the way
Too happy for such an abode,
And my heart sings its praise to the Master of all,
Who is helping me serve in the road.

—Walter J. Green.

New turbans that are draped on the head are lovely for automobiling. They are made out of a yard of material that is one-half of a yard wide. The center of the material is gathered into a buckle which is placed over the forehead. The material is then drawn back to the nape of the neck and is then split so as to form two ends which drape about the head in turban fashion and fold under at the sides of the head. If properly adjusted a turban of this sort looks as though it were a hat and on a drape wound about the head.

train sheds, miles of tracks, its monumental main building of Indiana limestone containing a small city in itself, will be ready next year.

Among the unusual features of the station will be a jail, for the detention of prisoners awaiting transportation; a chapel and a morgue.

The basic architectural idea is that everything having to do with passengers shall be on the same floor, restaurants, ticket offices, waiting rooms, rest rooms and the like. A conception of its size may be gained from the fact that the lobby of the concourse with the subway under Canal street will form a single room 300 feet long and 180 feet wide, communicating with a waiting room 250 feet long and 100 feet wide. The whole construction is being handled without the interruption of a train. The limestone blocks, of many designs and measurements, are all cut at the quarries in Indiana and come numbered so that they may be

NEW WORLD

Rabbi Joseph Rosenblatt, noted cantor, has sailed from New York to sing in London, Paris, Berlin and Carlsbad. A host of friends gathered at the pier to bid him bon voyage and chanted the inspiring "Eli, Eli" just before the vessel left. Rosenblatt is the noted tenor who has consistently rejected large offers to appear on the operatic stage.

Children in Russia have learned to smile again. Among the youngsters who are still being fed by America one sees not infrequently girls with as rosy cheeks and as happy smiles as these three young Muscovites whose tin dishes, wooden spoons, fresh rolls baked from white American flour show plainly that they have just come from an American Relief Administration kitchen. The photograph below reveals another phase of American relief in Russia. The famine this winter is not comparable to that of a year ago. The American Relief Administration, of which Herbert Hoover is chairman, has had to feed children in certain districts where the crops were poor and in governmental homes and orphanages where suitable milk and fats needed by growing boys and girls for a balanced ration were not available. It will continue this feeding up to the next harvest, at least, and according to the best estimates available, 3,000,000 will be the maximum number of children who will have to depend upon A. R. A. rations. A year ago before the harvest could be gathered the A. R. A. was feeding more than 10,000,000 children and adults in Russia.

BRACELETS FROM WRIST TO SHOULDER, FASHION'S NEW DECREE

CHICAGO—Long earrings and many bracelets are the outstanding features of this season's styles in jewelry.

Miss Sally Milgrim of New York, who was in Chicago recently, wore a typical armful of jewels and earrings such as "everybody is wearing in France," she said. The earrings are a little more than three inches in length and are made up of strings of pearls and diamonds hanging from a little cluster of diamonds, pearls, and black onyx.

at the wrist where two yards of diamonds and pearls are wound into eight bracelet. Above this is an inch-wide band of diamonds and pearls set in platinum. Two narrow bracelets in diamonds and precious stones are above this, and at the bend of the elbow a little diamond and platinum watch marks time.

The vogue for many bracelets is not limited to diamonds, emeralds, sapphires, and pearls, but includes the semi-precious and imitation colored stones. It is a current style to have the stones in earrings match the eyes, sapphire and lapis lazuli for blue eyes, topaz and amber for hazel and brown eyes, diamonds, opals and pearls for gray eyes, and emerald and jade for green eyes. Jewelry sets that harmonize with costume color are fashionable and finger-ring watches are a pronounced fad.

THE LIMA BEANS OF '23

By HEDDA HOYT

Fashion Editor of the United Press
(Written for the United Press)

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 6.—What will eventually become of the feminine figure?

In recent years the ideal of perfect womanhood has dwindled from a "perfect 36" to an imperfect 34. We used to think that a girl couldn't be beautiful unless she had a figure with a certain amount of natural curves. We accepted the idea that Venus de Milo was the perfect type of womanhood and we sought to be as nearly like her as possible.

But the fashionable feminine figure has grown smaller and smaller in the last decade until today an angular curveless size 34 is considered the ideal figure. "Perfect 36's are all dieting or taking up violent physical exercises in order to reduce."

The models of a year ago are out of work and in their places are an emaciated lot of tall, gaunt women that look like refugees. Most of them are so painfully thin that they would have been shelved as old maids ten years ago.

The Lima Bean Shape

Their figures remind one of the traditional "bar of soap after a week's wash." They resemble in shape the lima bean and their only curves are located at the joining of the foot to the ankle or perhaps on the left leg where a little wad of bills bulges the stocking. Their soda appetites augment the bank roll, if not the figure.

To be in perfect form today a woman must be hipless, waistless, bustless and footless. It's pretty hard on the girl who has been brought up to believe in athletics, for she can't hope to compete with the women who look as if they were in the last stages of a wasting disease.

The normal, wholesome body is decidedly not in the style according to the modistes and gown manufacturers. Some of us, however, will be old-fashioned enough to continue believing that Venus is the perfect type of beauty, regardless of the 1923 verdict. Others will diet for style's sake and steam themselves in Turkish baths from size 38's to 34's.

In the meantime what's to become of womanhood if this narrowing and reducing of the feminine figure continues?

BIG NIGHT

Many friends of J. K. Hughes will gather at the cafeteria of the High School building tonight at 8:30 in honor of Mr. Hughes and family at which time a banquet will be tendered. HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION
NO. 16

Proposing an amendment to Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, which relates to taxation and revenues, by adding thereto a new section to be known as Section 9a, directing the Legislature to provide for the construction, operation and maintenance under State control, of a State system of public highways; providing for an election for the ratification or rejection of amendment herein proposed, and making an appropriation to defray the expense of said election.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:
Section 1. That there be submitted to the people of Texas, for ratification or rejection at a special election provided for herein an amendment to Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, amending said Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding thereto a new section to be known as Section 9a, which shall read as follows:

Section 9a. The Legislature is authorized and directed to provide for the creation, establishment, construction, maintenance and repair of a system of improved highways throughout the State to be under the control of the State; and in order that the State may provide the means, revenues and instrumentalities the establishment and maintenance of such system of highways, the Legislature is empowered to levy and cause to be collected specific excise and ad valorem taxes, in addition of those permitted for other purposes in the Constitution, but such an ad valorem tax shall be imposed only for the purpose of retiring the bonds authorized by vote of the people of this State as provided for hereinafter in this Section.

When said system shall have been designated and taken over for the State as provided in Section 4 hereof, the Legislature is authorized to make provision for the equitable compensation to such counties for the value of such improvements as have been theretofore constructed by the Counties in the State.

Provided, also that save for the State highway system, in all other respects, Counties shall have the right to build, construct and maintain roads, turnpikes, and bridges within their respective boundaries and the Constitutional provisions relating thereto are not qualified or repealed by reason hereof.

The Legislature, at any Regular or Special Session, is authorized and directed to pass and enact all appropriate legislation necessary to carry out and effectuate the purpose and intent of these Articles.

Sec. 2. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to cause to be issued his necessary proclamation for an election to be held on the fourth Saturday in July, 1923, at which election this amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of this State for adoption or rejection and shall make the publication required by the Constitution and Laws of the State. Said election shall be held under and in accordance with the General Election Laws of the State, and the ballots for said election shall have printed or written thereon in plain letters the following words:

"OFFICIAL BALLOT": "For the amendment to Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing for a State system of highways." "Against the amendment to Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing for a State system of highways."

Those voters who favor such amendment shall erase by marking a line through the words "Against the Amendment to Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing for a State system of highways." Those who oppose such amendment shall erase by marking a line through them, the words, "For the amendment to Article 8 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing for a State system of highways." And the result of the election shall be published and declared according to the majority of the voters cast in such election.

Sec. 3. The sum of Five thousand Dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the treasury not otherwise appropriated for the purpose of paying the necessary expenses of the proclamation and publication of this amendment and the election to be held hereunder.

S. L. STAPLES,
Secretary of State.

Corn-Fed Russian Waifs Are Living Testimonials to Success of American Relief Administrations Activities

These round-faced, plump cheeked boys and girls are all American-fed salvage from the Russian famine. They come from the Ufa district in the Ural region where last year famine conditions were at the worst. The photograph, taken in March, 1928, in the Central children's home at Sterlitamak, was recently received by the American Relief Administration from W. L. Bell, the American supervisor of the district. "A year ago," Mr. Bell writes, "these children were sleeping six to eight in a bed, without clothes, without blankets, and many were starving for want of food or freezing for want of fuel. This year they are clothed, warm, fat and happy. The home was supplied with wood collected by adult famine victims who received an American corn ration in return for their labor, food was furnished for the children by the American Relief Administration, as was also the bedding shown in the picture."

chairman, is still feeding some 3,000,000 children in Russia and will continue its work at least until the coming harvest in August. The feeding during the past winter has been confined largely to the children's homes and other institutions, although open kitchens have been maintained in some places where such institutional feeding seemed inadequate to meet the need. Its medical program, which has resulted in the equipment of many hospitals which otherwise would have had to close their doors, and in checking the spread of typhus, cholera and other diseases that were widely epidemic, is still going forward.

West Virginia Governor May Lose Eyesight

According to The Charleston Gazette former Governor John J. Cornwell of West Virginia, is rapidly losing his vision. The article is as follows:

BERKELEY SPRINGS, W. VA., June 2.—Former Governor John J. Cornwell, of the adjoining county of Hampshire, is rapidly losing his vision, according to a report printed in the current issue of the Morgan Messenger.

The newspaper declares that the information is apparently authoritative but expresses the hope that the reports are not correct. It stated that the friends of the former governor, now chief counsel for the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, fear that he will go blind.

Governor Cornwell is known and beloved by many in Mexico. He was a member of a distinguished party of guests of Colonel Albert E. Humphreys about two years ago and while here dedicated the bridge at the Colonel's famous and popular playgrounds. In commenting on the above article, Colonel Humphreys expressed deep regret and stated that he hoped that the report was exaggerated. Other friends here also hope that he will early recover his sight completely and continue to live many years of

HARDING VS. FORD OR UNDERWOOD?

Henry J. Allen

Henry J. Allen, former Republican Governor of Kansas, has stated, in London, his belief that President Harding will be a candidate for reelection and that he will be opposed by either Henry Ford, automobile manufacturer, or Oscar W. Underwood, United States Senator from Alabama. Allen denied that he intends to seek the Republican nomination. Democratic leaders, he said, are for Underwood, but he is skeptical about their ability to control the national convention.

Railroad service out of here is hit hard and freight embargoes have been put on by several roads.

TULSA

TULSA, Okla., June 12.—Although a United States Weather Bureau warning from Fort Smith received here yesterday predicted the Arkansas river here to reach a flood stage of 17½ feet, old time river men and Indians who have watched the muddy Arkansas for many years said the ten foot rise which inundated Wichita and Arkansas City, Kansas, would not affect the river at this point to anything like the degree it did in the Kansas towns.

The river rose two feet an hour for five hours at Arkansas City Sunday evening but beginning last night at 11 p. m. the rise here was but two inches an hour. This two inch rise here was maintained until 7 o'clock this morning, bringing the waters to 14.9 feet, nearly three feet below the official prediction.

Many families have moved out of the low lands here and if the river rises the full three more feet authorities say West Tulsa will be inundated.

KANSAS

WICHITA, Kas., June 12.—The flood situation here was as follows:

Little Arkansas river rising again but only slightly.

Big Arkansas river is about stationary.

The Little Arkansas began rising early Monday evening at Haller's Grove. Two hours later it stopped, falling in Wichita, and one hour later it registered a rise of two-tenths of a foot, according to local meteorologist Peterson.

The crest of the new rise will be practically the same as the stage maintained Sunday night when water was breaking over at various points along its channel from Tenth street northward, Mr. Peterson declared. This will mean, he says, that the section inundated Sunday night and which practically cleared of water Monday night will again be flooded this morning.

GIBBONS NO CINCH, SAYS FARRELL

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
NEW YORK, June 12.—Jack Demp-

Tommy Gibbons in Shelby on July 4.
The champion insists that he is not underestimating the ability of his challenger and that he considers himself in for a hard fight.

His real opinion of the ability of Gibbons, however, is reflected in the attitude of his manager, who is working up other contests for the champion with the apparent idea that Gibbons is already defeated.

One wit in New York made the crack that all the training Dempsey would have to do to get ready for the ring on July 4 would be to grow a beard. Jess Willard didn't even take the trouble to let his whiskers grow at Toledo, and it is history what happened to him.

It is all a matter of opinion, but those who are considering Gibbons as such a set-up for the champion should consider that no fighter, no matter how great he is, can afford to stay out of the ring for two years and go back against any kind of an opponent without getting himself in good condition.

Gibbons is being underestimated by practically all the critics in the East. Some of the feeling against the challenger can be traced and some of it is due no doubt to the desire to make light of the fight, because it is not being staged in the East.

Tommy Gibbons is a dangerous fighter and a good fighter. He will be in condition because he has been fighting a lot in the last three years and he always keeps himself in shape.

If the feeling that Gibbons is a mark for Dempsey is at all general

among the fight fans, all over the country, there are the makings of the biggest surprise in years in the Shelby bout.

Mrs. Anne U. Stillman

Mrs. Florence Leeds

Baby Jay Leeds

A new turn in the Stillman divorce scandal—which shook the nation when James A. Stillman, then head of the National City Bank, the greatest financial institution in America, charged that Fred Beauvais, a Canadian Indian guide, was the father of Guy Stillman, youngest son of his wife, Mrs. Anne Urquhart Stillman—has been reached. Mrs. Stillman was vindicated, and she in turn charged that Stillman was the father of Jay Leeds, son of Florence Leeds, a former stage beauty, and that Stillman was maintaining Mrs. Leeds in luxury. Now Mrs. Leeds declares she is contemplating suit against Stillman for the $1,500 a month he formerly paid her for the support of the child. She alleges Stillman paid this sum all during the divorce suit and then cast her off. Mrs. Stillman, in a remarkable interview, declared her children have been brought up to believe Jay Leeds was their half-brother and offered to rear the child herself if Mrs. Leeds has to give it up.

Taint Fair To Thus Work Te Bees Overtime

CALLEN, Texas June 12.—Raising queen bees for shipment to all parts of the United States and many foreign countries nets E. B. Ault, of near here, an annual revenue of more than $50,000.

Ault's queen bee farm is now in its twelfth year of operation. Artificial means of obtaining the queens must be resorted to, Ault explained, in order to make the business profitable. If queens would be obtained each year.

When it was learned that bees, like carpenters, work according to the architect's plans and specifications, Ault began building large cells for the queens in an artificial wax foundation. As a result he gets about 100 queen bees from each hive instead of only one as the case would be if the bees were allowed to take their own course.

After the queen cells have been made, the larvae of ordinary workers are placed in the cells which are noticeably larger than those of the workers and the bees provide a "royal food" or jelly for them. This food, together with the larger quarters permits the transferred workers to develop into queens.

The queen bees are shipped in small cartons fitted with a fine mesh wire so that the air can circulate and three or four workers are placed in the container to attend the queen.

Another new phase of the bee industry developed by Ault is that of "farming out" many of his swarms. When the honey making season closes in Texas, Ault ships his hives to other parts of the United States where the bees continue their work.

This departure promises to become a most important branch of the bee business, Ault says.

MEXIA FAMILY TO MAKE EXTENDED TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Crow and charming baby daughter, Mary Jane, leave today for an extended visit to Chicago and points in Canada, the East and other parts of the country. They will go first to Chicago where they will visit for a few days, following which they will go to Munsing, Michigan. From there they will go into Canada, thence to New York City and from the latter will return South by the way of steamer to New Orleans.

Officer's Grit Overawed Negro

DALLAS, Texas June 12.—The daring of the local police force was again demonstrated here recently by Squad Officer Allen.

Accompanied by a fellow officer Allen responded to a call when told of an altercation between negroes in the negro residential section here. As the officers neared the scene a negro ran out of a house carrying a Winchester rifle and dodged between two adjoining frame buildings.

Allen, while giving pursuit, stumbled and found himself jammed against the muzzle of the loaded gun, with the negro's finger on the trigger. A battle of nerves followed. The keen, calm eyes of the officer bored into those of the black.

Suddenly Allen whipped out his revolver and the negro simultaneously dropped the rifle, threw up his hands and submitted to arrest.

PARIS CITY OF DEAD

PARIS, June 12.—The Paris catacombs—the famous subterranean city of the dead—recently reopened after being closed throughout the war, are again becoming one of the showplaces of Paris. Scores of Americans make the trip through the weird underground vaults. The vast labyrinth corridors cut from stone hold the skeletons of more than three million persons who have died in Paris during several centuries. Nowhere in modern civilization have the remains of the dead been employed on such a scale for ornamental and show purposes. Hundreds of thousands of skulls, arm and leg bones are arranged in artistic patterns and mosaics on the walls. In other corridors the bones and skulls are piled neatly in square piles. On one wall is a great spider, its body formed of skulls, the legs of leg bones.

Look! Look! What The Mexia Daily News Has to Offer You

12 MONTHS FOR $1.50
AND A FEW WORDS

-THE MEXIA DAILY NEWS will start a campaign for subscriptions June 15th for subscribers in Limestone and Freestone counties, by mail. Now here is the plan:

$1.50 and Two Subscribers at $2.00 Each

will entitle you and the two subscribers to The Mexia Daily News for one year—one of the best daily papers in Central Texas. Now you have heard about bargains and about sales but to think of receiving at your home each day by mail, a daily paper for the small amount of $2.

-This campaign will positively close July 15th and this marvelous offer we are making you cannot be overlooked as it is our intention to place The Mexia Daily News in every home in these two counties. There will be in the next twelve months, big issues concerning the welfare of our county and state and our motto will be as in the past to publish cold facts. You will also find thru the columns of our paper advertisements bargains offered by the merchants that will repay you a dozen times for the small costs of The News. The Mexia Daily News carries all foreign news, local news, sport news, oil news, farm news, comics—the old favorite Jiggs and Maggie and various other features.

-Now remember: Enclose The Mexia Daily News a check for $5.50 with two additional names and each will receive the paper for twelve months. Now this is strictly for papers sent out by mail embracing Limestone and adjoining counties. No subscription will be taken over fifty miles from Mexia or in Mexia where delivered by carrier for less than the regular price.

Aged Parrot Dies At Temple, Texas

TEMPLE, Texas June 12.—Hosea Rasbury, night merchant police, had a special casket made and the bird's body embalmed when his pet parrot died here recently.

He then laid off from his duties long enough to take the parrot to Kemper where it was interred in the family burial plot.

The bird was obtained in Mexico forty years ago and it is not known how old it was at that time although parrots have been known to live past the 100 year mark.

LET'S SHAKE, NEIGHBORS

The Corsicana Sun praises Gumbo Pitcher Cantrell and bemoans the loss of the game last Sunday to the Mexia Gushers thuswise:

Joe Cantrell hurled the greatest exhibition of nerve, grit, determination, real mound duty and consistent game of baseball which has been played on the Gumbo Buster park this season, taking into consideration the eighteen innings pitched by Tiner of Mexia Friday. The Gumbo Busters lost 4 to 3 in fifteen innings. In view of the fact that his team-mates made eight errors, in view of the fact that his support would weaken at crucial times, although his team-mates worked faithfully and hard, and also the opposition playing an errorless game, to say nothing of questionable decisions by the arbiter bears out the high words of praise which was on the lips of all fans present at the ball game Saturday afternoon.

Tiner Pitches Brilliant One Hit Game Monday

Bryan Stellar Batsman In Gusher's Success

The fastest game of the season took place at Gusher Park Monday afternoon when the local club trounced the visiting delegation from Marlin 8 to 0. The game lasted only an hour and thirteen minutes, but it was one that met the approval of the fans present and is recorded as the fastest game of the season thus far.

Marlin staged a great battle but failed to win, although playing almost errorless ball behind Andrews who allowed the hitting Gushers 7 hits.

He did his best to win by securing the only hit off of Tiner's whip.

To Tiner would have gone the credit of having pitched a no hit game had it not been for this single of Andrews.

Bryan had a big day, too. He pelted the ball for a homer and a two bagger.

Texas Solons Deplore N. Y. Act On Prohi

AUSTIN, June 12.—The action of the New York legislature in repealing the Prohibition Enforcement Law of that state is deplored in a resolution introduced in the House of Representatives. Prohibition forces in the House are in the majority and it is believed that the resolution will be adopted when it is considered tomorrow. The adoption of the resolution would also place the House on record as being in favor of a vigorous enforcement of the liquor laws in the state, and a close co-operation between state and federal "dry" agents.

Health Scholarships Offered As Education Step By American Child Health Association Forces

"America is more and more awakening to the truth that the strength of a nation is the strength of its boys and girls. War with its physical examinations drove home the fact of our national need of increased health and strength. Statistics show that 30% of the school children of our country are undernourished.

The American Child Health Association, believing that health is a matter of sound education, and that no greater creed can be spread through the world than the gospel of good health, has instituted a unique series of health scholarships. The sum of $10,000 has been allotted to these scholarships, which are to be awarded to teachers in service for training in health education. Conditions provide that the awards will include five fellowships of not more than $1,000 each and five of not more than $500 each. Several fellowships will also be awarded to teachers to defray their expenses on tours of observation to demonstration centers of effective work in health education.

Thomas D. Wood, M.D., of Teachers' College, Columbia University, is the chairman of the Scholarship Committee, and Miss Sally Lucas Jean, Director of the Department of Health Education of the American Child Health Association, will head the work for the Association.

Dr. Wood and Miss Jean announce that the purpose of these health scholarships is two-fold. In the first place, it is to help promising teachers and leaders in the field of health education to improve their

Mexia Daily News His Favorite Paper

Bad Mills, who left here several months ago, and located at San Benito, in the magic valley, is here with his family visiting relatives and friends for a few days. Mr. Mills says, he is well pleased with his new home, but still likes Mexia, and keeps up with matters up here, as he gets the Daily News every morning and reads it first of his papers, and that he cannot do without his home paper.

This Tremendous Market Reached Daily

THEY ARE COMING

-If there is any doubt yet remaining in the minds of Mexia people that the Mexia Dry Goods Store is being sold out, let them come and see for themselves. People are literally flocking to this sale from every point of the compass and there is an endless stream of merchandise flowing out of our door all day long.

BUT WHAT OF THAT? THERE IS NOTHING IN THAT TO BOAST ABOUT. IT IS NOT AT ALL STRANGE.

-Truth is, the people of Mexia are judges of merchandise and know bargains. Any one could take a full stock of high grade, gilt edge merchandise and sell it at these prices. It doesn't require salesmanship to sell goods at a loss of profit, such as this Closing Out Sale. It only requires physical ability to deliver them fast enough!

NOW HERE'S FAIR WARNING

-If you are in the market now or expect to be any time in the future, for anything in the Dry Goods Line, Wearing Apparel, Novelty Notions, Shoes, Trunks or Traveling Goods and you fail to avail yourself of the privilege of saving from—

33 1-3 To 60 Per Cent

-on each and every purchase you have a perfect right to do so, but it can plainly be seen that the rank and file of Mexia people are exercising better judgment. You could not buy goods in this sale at the regular price asked by other stores if you wanted to. Every article in this store is marked with the Red Tag and in every instance the tag shows a reduction from all former prices.

-Our stocks are holding up well considering the inroads we are making into them, but every day you put off your purchases your chances are that much less.
